Good afternoon Rudolph. Everything is fine here, and I hope that all is well with you as well 😊

We believe the meeting procedure outlined below would be in compliance with the Meeting Procedures (COVID-19 Suppression) Regulation.

Regards,

Kevin

Subject: RE: public attendance at Council meetings

Hope well Kevin.

At our meeting last night Council proposed the following scenario for our Sept 26 annual information, organizational and regular council meeting Sept 26 at 9am:

One or two or three members of Council meet in person at the hall (our regular in person venue) and allow up to 25 people in person to attend with the CAO phoning in and excess members of public having the opportunity to phone in.

Keeping with social distancing rules our hall at most would be able to accommodate 25 people but the CAO would phone in and possible one or 2 members of Council and attendance for the public would be first come first serve with the Bylaw Officer directing numbers 26 and higher to phone in.

Sandy does not have an accompanying COVID Bylaw.

Is this a scenario that complies with regulation or legislation for such meetings under COVID?

Thank you

Regards,

Rudolf Liebenberg
